During this two-day international workshop, experts from research and industrial organisations in Greece, Europe and the USA are invited to participate with presentations. Researchers, professional engineers and advanced/graduate students are invited to attend and discuss new discoveries and problems, exchange their views and develop plans for the future.
The workshop will facilitate the interaction of both research and industrial groups, and will promote the creation of future research exchanges and collaborations for innovation and the exploitation of research results.

During this two-day international workshop, experts from research and industrial organisations in Greece, Europe and the USA are invited to participate with presentations. Researchers, professional engineers and advanced/graduate students are invited to attend and discuss new discoveries and problems, exchange their views and develop plans for the future.
The workshop will facilitate the interaction of both research and industrial groups, and will promote the creation of future research exchanges and collaborations for innovation and the exploitation of research results.

Topics
This workshop will include invited lectures on:

1. Future Fuels - Future Engines
2. Multifunctional Emission Control Devices
3. Challenges in Low Emissions Measurement and Testing
4. Air Quality Issues and Retrofit Approaches

16-17 October 2014
CERTH
6th km Charilaou-Thermi Rd
GR 57001 Thermi, Thessaloniki
Greece

Please note
REGISTRATION
All participants should register until September 5th 2014.

ABSTRACT SUBMISSION

You can submit poster abstract until September 5th 2014.

LINKS

The workshop
APT-STEP Project

FILES

- Flyer [106,94KB]
- Call for Papers [1.562,66KB]
- Registration Form [38,50KB]
- Poster-Abstract Form [38,50KB]