

The research team of Dr. Stella Bezergianni from the Center of Research and Technology Hellas (CERTH) from Chemical Process Engineering and Research Institute (CPERI) has won the second award in the Competition "Greece Innovates" that had been co-organized from the Hellenic Federation of Enterprises and Eurobank EFG. The award ceremony has taken place on Tuesday 5 July in the centre of Culture "Hellenic World" in Athens.